

PIHC Advanced Cycling Program Facilitator NEIL MANNING

Neil Manning is an elite cyclist that needs no introduction to the world of cycling here in Western Australia and Australia. Indeed his profile below also shows his credentials overseas.

Neil is well known to the PIHC family with his association with our Managing Director Ian Wee spanning some 20+ years, where they worked together in the area of occupational health and safety at the National Australia Bank.

He currently holds a project position also within Cycling WA as the Risk Management manager and his work in risk management in cycling was in 2009 profiled at the highest level at Cycling Australia with great interest and accolade by the association.

Neil's cycling resume presents as follows:
