

Professional Profile of Jenny Jones, Flower Essence Therapist

Jenny Jones practices at 41 Havelock Street, West Perth together with the team at the Perth Integrated Health Clinic (PIHC). Jenny's holistic philosophy towards life and health has seen her integrate her practice together with that of Ian Wee and his team at PIHC which includes Occupational Therapy, Chiropractic, Naturopathy, Counselling and Podiatry.

Jenny professional background is varied, and with that, experience which allows her the scope and depth of practice. She has tertiary qualifications with a Bachelor of Education and Diploma in Home Economics in conjunction with her practice qualifications in Flower Essence Therapy (Holistic Counselling and Mind & Body Medicine Certificate 4). These varied qualifications stands Jenny in a unique position of being able to practice both as practitioner, as well as a lifestyle advisor and educator to her clients.

Her life skills and experiences also extend to the provision of supervision and coaching previously as a High School Teacher in Home Economics and Social Studies as well as Adult Education in Nutrition and Healthy Cooking. She has also been the co-ordinator of lesson programs at the Beatty Park Aquatic Centre, having successfully run her own coaching and swimming school at the Challenge Stadium in previous years.

Jenny attributes her balanced lifestyle and ability to assist her clients to her successful marriage of 26 years to Keith Jones, the Managing Partner of Deloitte as well as her successful role as mother to 2 daughters and a son all of whom have achieved professional status in their careers and in their studies.

She has a proven track record in the sporting arena having coached swimmers at the State and National Level as well guiding others in Water Polo at the Club, State and National Levels.

Her community involvement is extensive, a testimony to her desire to assist the community at large. This is reflected in her involvement in Religious Education in State Schools, as Church President of the Majellans (Catholic Mothers Group, Treasurer at the School Auxiliary Committee and at her local Golf Club.
